Recipients of the award are admitted to the McMaster Honour Society.

Eligibility

A nominee's contributions may have been rendered in such areas as university, student, or residence governments, departments, clubs, societies, charities, or athletics. A panel of student leaders, faculty, and a member of the Honour Society will select recipients of the award. Barring special circumstances, no more than three (3) awards are normally granted each year.

The selection committee may request a third party contact to corroborate the biographical information.
