

J. LYNN WATSON AWARD

The J. Lynn Watson Award for Community Service has been presented annually since 1983 by the McMaster Students Union and the Inter-Residence Council to the campus group that has made the greatest one-year contribution to charitable giving.

Eligibility

A group's contributions should:

- 1) provide a learning opportunity for students in the area of community service;
- 2) encourage staff, teams, and students to contribute in a meaningful way to a charitable cause;
- 3) enhance the visibility of McMaster University in the Hamilton community and work towards creating a positive community presence; and,
- 4) demonstrate McMaster University's commitment to serving the social, cultural, and economic needs of our community and our society. Barring special circumstances, no more than one (1) award is granted each year.

Instructions

Please attach a description of the group's achievement of no more than three (3) pages in length explaining why the group is a competitive candidate to receive the J. Lynn Watson Award for Community Service. The selection committee may, at its discretion, request a third party contact to corroborate the information.

Place the completed nomination package in a sealed envelope with the name of the nominee and award printed clearly on the front, and deliver it to the MSU Office in the McMaster University Student Centre, room 201, no later than noon on Thursday, March 8th, 2012.
