

RUDY HEINZL AWARD

The Rudy Heinzl Award of Excellence

has been presented annually since 1997 in recognition of an outstanding one-year achievement that improves the lives of students at McMaster University. The names of recipients are recorded on a permanent plaque displayed in the foyer of the MSU Office, and recipients of the award receive a framed colour photograph of the Edwards Archway bearing an engraved plate

History of the Award

In his 33 years of service at McMaster, including 11 years as Dean of Student Affairs, Rudy Heinzl displayed an uncommon dedication to the concerns of students. Through this award the MSU honours his contribution by commemorating the work of others who have similarly contributed to the well-being of McMaster's student community.

Eligibility

Any member of the McMaster community is eligible for the award. No more than one (1) award is granted each year.

Instructions

Please attach a description of the candidate of no more than one (1) page in length describing the candidate's achievement and contribution to students and explaining why he or she is a competitive candidate to receive the Rudy Heinzl Award of Excellence. The selection committee may request a third party contact to corroborate the biographical information.

Place the completed nomination package in a sealed envelope with the name of the nominee and award printed clearly on the front, and deliver it to the MSU Office in the McMaster University Student Centre, room 201, no later than noon on Thursday, March 8th, 2012.
